Job-Specific Responsibilities:

- Provision of individual primary care including wellness assessments across the lifespan, immunization, chronic disease monitoring, triage, counselling, advocacy and care of minor episodic illnesses
- Health teaching to individuals
- Working collaboratively within a multidisciplinary team
- Participation in team meetings and centre-wide initiatives
- Performance of administrative tasks

Job-Specific Qualifications:

- Licensed as Registered Nurse with the College of Nurses of Ontario with no restrictions to practice
- Member of RNAO with malpractice coverage
- Baccalaureate degree or equivalent experience
- Strong clinical assessment skills
- Strong documentation and communication skills
- Ability to speak a second language is an asset
- Sensitivity to the impact of social health determinants on a diverse, urban, low-income community
- Sensitivity to and knowledge of the needs of a multicultural, multiracial community
- Experience serving Unison's priority populations (people with mental health and addictions, seniors with complex needs, LGBTTTQ2+, and youth facing barriers)
- Ability to work flexible hours, including one evening per week and one Saturday per month as needed

Interested candidates are asked to email a résumé with covering letter by Monday, March 9, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. to:
