Unison Health and Community Services is a non-profit, community-based organization that serves neighbourhoods in North West Toronto. Operating out of six locations, Unison offers core services that include primary health care, counselling, health promotion, Early Years programs, legal services, harm reduction programs, housing assistance, adult protective services, Pathways to Education and a Diabetes Education program.

Unison's mission is working together to deliver accessible and high quality health and community services that are integrated, respond to needs, build on strengths and inspire change.

We are dedicated to providing high quality health care and community services and programs, with a focus on priority populations in North West Toronto.

We are working from an inclusive, sex positive, harm reduction, anti-racist, pro-choice, anti-oppression, and participatory framework in addressing the issue of access to health care for our mandated priority populations encompassing all the determinants of health.

Unison has recently opened a sixth site located in the community of Oakwood-Vaughan. The satellite offers primary care and youth specific mental health, addictions and sexual health services.

At this time, Unison is seeking a Community Health Physician for the Oakwood-Vaughan site. Reporting to the Clinical and Allied Health Site Manager for Lawrence Heights and Oakwood Vaughan, and with direction from the Clinic Coordinator, the Community Health Physician will be responsible for providing primary care to clients and their families within a multi-disciplinary, collaborative care model that emphasizes health promotion and client education. They will also provide walk-in care to youth in areas of sexual and reproductive health including trans care, mental health and addictions.

The Community Health Physician will have strong clinical and interpersonal skills to complement our team.

Qualifications:

- License to practice medicine and membership in good standing with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario
- Availability to work one evening per week and two to three Saturdays per month
- Demonstrated experience in community-based primary care settings
- Demonstrated knowledge of and sensitivity to the impact of social, economic, environmental and cultural issues on health
- Ability to work as part of an interdisciplinary team of clinical and program staff

- Ability to do venipuncture or willingness to learn
- Demonstrated experience in community-based primary care settings that focus on youth
- Ability to manage all aspects of reproductive health including insertion and removal of IUDs
- Prescribe relevant medications and provide follow up care to clients requesting medical abortions
- Ability to initiate and provide hormone therapy to trans clients
- Maintain professional development related to youth, general healthy sexuality and related specific job responsibility issues
- Demonstrated commitment to equity goals and principals, to sexual and reproductive rights, to being youth positive, LGBTTQ2+ positive and sex positive and to being inclusive of diverse sexual and gender identities
- Commitment to pro-choice philosophy
- Experience serving Unison's priority populations (seniors with complex needs, people with mental health and addictions, LGBTTQ2+, and youth facing barriers)
- Commitment to working from a harm reduction, community development perspective
- Ability to speak a second language an asset.

Unison Health and Community Services offers a competitive compensation plan.
