Community Mental Health and Addictions Worker (Inter-professional Team) full-time, permanent - 35 hours per week

Unison Health and Community Services is a non-profit, community-based organization that serves neighbourhoods in North West Toronto. Operating out of five locations, Unison offers core services that include primary health care, case management and counseling, health promotion, Early Years programs, legal services, harm reduction programs, housing assistance, adult protective services, Pathways to Education and a Diabetes Education Program. Unison's mission is working together to deliver accessible and high quality health and community services that are integrated, respond to needs, build on strengths and inspire change.

Unison is committed to working from an inclusive, pro-choice, sex positive, harm reduction, anti-racist, anti-oppression and participatory framework.

We are currently seeking a Community Mental Health and Addictions Worker to be part of a newly formed, inter-professional care team, to work in an underserved area, aimed at improving access to mental health and addiction services to the surrounding community.

The Community Mental Health and Addictions Worker will report to the Program Manager, Mental Health and Substance Use.

Job Specific Responsibilities:

- Participate in team activities involving assessment of needs/strengths in the identified communities as related to mental health and addictions services
- Provide input and support to program planning and evaluation activities
- Facilitate client referrals to relevant resources
- Provide assessment, treatment planning, referral, advocacy, case support, community treatment and education to clients
- Help clients identify and use health resources, including those available in the community and from community agencies
- Provide counselling on an individual and group basis, maintaining case notes and statistics
- Promote awareness of, access to and participation in Unison programs, services and activities
- Initiate group programs to promote and support clients as they strive to achieve the highest possible level of health
- Liaise with local agencies for the purpose of raising public awareness, education and information sharing and participate in community based networks
- Provide assistance and support for the management of internal crisis situations at Unison
- Apply 'de-escalation' techniques to help clients manage their emotions and behaviour

Job Specific Qualifications:

- Undergraduate degree/diploma (i.e. Bachelor of Social Work) or equivalent experience in related field
- Skill working with groups and individuals using a recovery and harm reduction approach to care
- Familiarity with harm reduction philosophy and principles

- Demonstrated working knowledge of working with clients with mental health and addiction including working with groups.
- Demonstrated knowledge of, and sensitivity to, the impact of social, economic, environmental and cultural issues, including unstable housing, on diverse communities
- Knowledge of issues affecting communities facing barriers to access in an urban environment.
- Familiarity with the social, economic and cultural conditions of the project's geographic area, experience in working with local service providers, community groups and networks, and an understanding of local issues and priorities are an asset
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and organizational skills, including computer literacy
- Excellent interpersonal skills with colleagues, students, community members, volunteers, etc.
- Excellent English communication skills, both written and verbal, with individuals and groups; knowledge of a second (or more) language and culture is an asset
- Ability to work flexible hours including some evenings and weekends
