

Job Posting

Community Health Physician – Oakwood-Vaughan Part time permanent position (17.5 hours per week) Oakwood-Vaughan site

Unison Health and Community Services is a non-profit, community-based organization that serves neighbourhoods in North West Toronto. Operating out of five locations (soon to be six), Unison offers core services that include primary health care, counselling, health promotion, Early Years programs, legal services, harm reduction programs, housing assistance, adult protective services, Pathways to Education and a Diabetes Education program.

Unison's mission is working together to deliver accessible and high quality health and community services that are integrated, respond to needs, build on strengths and inspire change.

We are dedicated to providing high quality health care and community services and programs, with a focus on priority populations in North West Toronto.

We are working from an inclusive, sex positive, harm reduction, anti-racist, pro-choice, anti-oppression, and participatory framework in addressing the issue of access to health care for our mandated priority populations encompassing all the determinants of health.

Unison is preparing to open a sixth site in the community of Oakwood-Vaughan. The satellite will offer primary care and youth specific mental health, addictions and sexual health services.

At this time, Unison is seeking a Community Health Physician for the Oakwood-Vaughan, Primary Health Care team. Reporting to the Clinical and Allied Health Site Manager for Lawrence Heights and Oakwood Vaughan, and with direction from the Clinic Coordinator, the Community Health Physician will be primarily responsible for providing primary care to clients and their families within a multi-disciplinary, collaborative care model that emphasizes health promotion and client education.

The Community Health Physician will have strong clinical and interpersonal skills to complement our team. Responsibilities include.

The successful candidate will have:

- License to practice medicine and membership in good standing with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario
- Availability to work evenings and Saturdays
- Demonstrated experience in community-based primary care settings
- Demonstrated knowledge of and sensitivity to the impact of social, economic, environmental and cultural issues on health
- Ability to work as part of an interdisciplinary team of clinical and program staff
- Ability to do venipuncture
- Experience serving Unison's priority populations (seniors with complex needs, people with mental health and addictions, LGBTTTQ2+, and youth facing barriers) an asset
- Commitment to working from a harm reduction, community development perspective
- Ability to speak a second language an asset.

Unison Health and Community Services offers a competitive compensation plan.

Interested candidates are asked to email a résumé with covering letter by 5:00 p.m., Thursday, May 9, 2019 to:
